

Elterntalk NRW

Parents under debate

Parents meet other parents and talk about parenting.

A moderator presents a topic to the rest. Elterntalk is no speech or lecture.

Mothers and fathers exchange views about their experiences of the topic – media in families.

Procedure

A host or a hostess invites four to eight mothers and fathers to his/her house.

These parents talk and exchange about their parenting in the area of media.

A moderator, even mother or father joins them. She or he brings suggestions concerning that talk.

But Elterntalk is no lecture. Parents exchange views about their parenting questions.

They bring own experiences and their own know-how, they are experts in one own's account.

Parents get best suggestions for their parenting from other parents.

One talk takes around two hours. For the parents who are part in that talk no costs arise.

If you wish, Elterntalk can be offered in various languages.

Be a part of us

Mothers and fathers can become a hostess or a host.

Message an Elterntalk-Team in your area; there you get all necessary contacts to a moderator in your area. Talk and arrange a topic and try to find a common appointment.

Then invite four to eight parents to your house and the talk begins.

You find partners on-site in your area on the website www.elterntalk-nrw.de.

The team of Elterntalk NRW at AJS NRW helps if necessary.

For further information

Elterntalk NRW is a project of AJS NRW. To bring Elterntalk NRW in different areas – AJS works together with partners on-site. That might be for example the youth welfare office, family institutions or associations. Current partners are people who are responsible for Elterntalk NRW in your region. This person searches and accompanies committed mothers and fathers that will be coached as moderators.

The idea of Elterntalk bases on the campaign of youth protection Bavaria – this project has been there since 2001.
